Term 1 (11 January – 24 March)

NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents, Learners and Friends

Once again, to our wonderful parents who so generously supported our Fun in the Sun fundraiser and gave of their time at Family Fun Day – our heartfelt thanks. We will have finalised all our expenses by the end of the week and will then know whether we have reached our target or not. However at this stage it is looking extremely encouraging.

Hearty congratulations to each and every one of you. Thank you for your fantastic support.

As term 1 draws to a close, I would like to thank the RPS staff and children for all their hard work during the term. It has been a busy term on the Academic, Sport and Cultural front. Thank you to the Staff and children for always going the extra mile and making RPS such a special place. Thank you to the parents for supporting us on all fronts, so that together we can make RPS the great school it is.

GAUTENG CHAMPIONSHIPS & S.A. CHAMPIONSHIPS

We are incredibly proud of our 8 athletes who competed at Gauteng Champs. Braeden Stocker, Moses Chibowa, Chelsea van Dyk and Logan Oosthuizen made it through to the final rounds on the day. Congratulations goes to Chelsea who placed 1st in the girls u/12 1200m race and will go through to compete at SA Champs.

PARENTS' EVENING - GRADE R - 7

Term 1 Reports will be handed out on Thursday, 23 March, for all Grades. A letter detailing times will be sent out during the week.

LAST DAY OF TERM

Parents, please note that School will close at 12:00 on Friday, 24 March. Please ensure that your children are fetched timeously.

PUBLIC HOLIDAY & SPECIAL SCHOOL HOLIDAY

reminder

A reminder that Tuesday, 21 March is Human Rights Day. However, Monday 20 March is a Special School holiday that has been granted to all schools. Please note that School will be closed that day.

RUGBY & NETBALL TOURNAMENT

Good luck to our 1st Rugby and Netball teams who are playing in the St. Dunstan's Tournament from 23 – 25 March. We trust that you will gain many valuable skills which will stand you in good stead for the rugby and netball season next term.

Wishing everyone a wonderful holiday. If you celebrate Easter may it be a blessed one. To our families who are travelling, safe travels.

See you all on Wednesday, 12 April for the start of Term 2.
