SPORT - RUGBY AND NETBALL

Well done to all our rugby teams who played against KEPS on Saturday in the annual friendly meeting. It is always a challenge to face good opposition, however, our boys played with heart and determination and learnt many valuable skills.

Our Valkie rugby boys also had their first matches on Saturday amidst great fun and enjoyment. Good luck to all our boys and girls involved in mini-netball, netball, Valkie rugby and rugby for their matches this week.

IN THIS ISSUE:

- RPS Concert
- Sport – Rugby & Netball
- Book Character Day
- Waiting Area
- Uniform

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- Tues, 30 April – Book Character Day

BOOK CHARACTER DAY

A reminder about Book Character Day on Tuesday, 30 April. Children may come to School dressed as a character from a book or representing an idiom or proverb. We are looking forward to a riot of ingenuity and creativity.

WAITING AREA

Parents, please assist us. The Waiting Area was created for children whose parents can only fetch them shortly after 14:00 and for children who have a safe place to wait after sport, extra-lessons or cultural activities. It is NOT an Aftercare. Children are being left in the Waiting Area from directly after School until 16:00/17:00. they have had no lunch, haven't been able to do their homework and are bored. The devil always finds work for idle hands and so they get up to mischief.

Parents, please use the Waiting Area for its intended purpose and not as an aftercare facility.

UNIFORM

We are in the transition period where some children are in summer uniform and others in winter uniform. All children must be in full winter uniform by Thursday, 2 May.

Please note parents, both girls and boys wear ties with their winter uniforms. Please refer to pages 23 and 24 in the Homework Diary for the requirements of the winter uniform.

Keep warm and have a wonderful week.
