Term 3 (21 July – 23 September)

Dear Parents, Learners and Friends

As of today, 14 September, our learners are expected to be in full summer uniform. Our learners need to be smartly dressed and presentable daily, wearing clean clothing, with clean faces and hair pulled back.

Reflecting on last week:

On Friday, our Grade 7 learners took part in Career Dress Up Day. It was great to see our Grade 7s aspiring to achieve greatness in their futures.

On Friday, some of our learners and teachers supported Funky Socks Day, a PNA initiative. Thank you for supporting this drive and wearing your stickers and funky socks to school.

Congratulations to Quinn Schonken on placing 2nd at Gauteng Champs over the weekend. Detailed results for Gauteng Champs can be found in the Sports Results section.

RPS WELCOMES THE MINISTER OF EXECUTIVE COUNCIL IN EDUCATION

From Tuesday, 15 September and Wednesday, 16 September, Mr Lebogang Maile, the Minister of Executive Council in Education, will be at our beautiful school. He will be attending a function hosted by the Department of Education. It is a great honour and privilege to welcome him and his colleagues to Rynfield Primary.

On Thursday, 17 September, Mr Makola and Dr. Roux from District will host a business networking meeting in our school hall.

Please note that parents will not be inconvenienced, as our guests will be parking on a section of the sports field.

It is of utmost importance that our learners are dressed smartly in their summer uniforms with their blazers. We thank you for your understanding and cooperation in this regard.
